

OFFICIAL
SOUVENIR
EDITION

THIRD ANNUAL FACTORY
FROLIC

TORRANCE HERALD

TORRANCE, CALIFORNIA

THURSDAY, SEPT. 26, 1940

Another Torrance Factory Frolic . . . another big weekend for the whole family and its friends from near and far . . . another opportunity to enjoy the wholesome fun features planned by home-folks for home-folks!

But this year's Factory Frolic, now three years old, offers you more than that. For three days you can forget war and waste, politics and parsnips, conscription and collections, blitzkrieg and business. Toss on a pair of overalls or fling on an apron and join the folks on the El Prado Gay-Way!

Torrance is host to the biggest community celebration in the Harbor District and the fun features—nearly all of them free—are yours to enjoy. Follow the three-day program outlined in this Factory Frolic supplement and don't miss a single event!

You Don't Have to Spend a
Fortune to Enjoy the Torrance
Factory
Frolic!

This Frolic
Has Everything:
Parades
Exhibits
Sports
Barbecue
Concessions
Dances Nightly!

HERE COMES THE PARADE! . . . Pretty Marjorie Anderson lead the 1939 Factory Frolic Parade, stepping high in front of the Torrance Municipal band. Next Saturday, Sept. 28, Leo Carrillo, famed motion picture player, will lead the 1940 Factory Frolic parade . . . Don't miss it!

Factory Frolic Time in Torrance
TODAY, FRIDAY, SATURDAY